“Blessed Assurance” by Fanny Crosby

The writer of this famous hymn, Fanny Crosby, knew all about blessed assurance. From six weeks of age until her death shortly before her 95th birthday, Fanny was blind. Sadly the blindness was caused by a medical error when a doctor put a mustard poultice on her inflamed eyes from a cold infection resulting in immediate blindness. Once a preacher sympathetically remarked, “I think it is a great pity that the Master did not give you sight when He showered so many other gifts upon you.” She replied quickly, “Do you know that if at birth I had been able to make one petition, it would have been that I should be born blind?” “Why?” asked the surprised minister. “Because when I get to heaven, the first face that shall ever gladden my sight will be that of my Savior!”
